

Comodo Appoints MAC Group as Exclusive USA Distributor

Clacton on Sea, United Kingdom – (February 20, 2014) – Comodo, a manufacturer of advanced camera stabilization systems, has appointed MAC Group as its exclusive distributor in the USA.

Designed in the UK and tested around the world, Comodo is dedicated to developing innovative and best-in-class products and placing them in the hands of creative professionals. Specializing in camera stabilization products for the photographic and filmmaking communities, Comodo brings a rich level of experience and a team of in-house filmmakers to its product development and engineering.

Announcing the distribution appointment for Comodo, a division of Bowens International Ltd., Emerson Roberts, Managing Director said: “Our strategy is to continue to bring new and exciting products to the camera stabilization arena by focusing on innovative and revolutionary products. Our dynamic new distribution arrangement with MAC Group will enable us to do that. MAC Group will provide the kind of marketing and distribution expertise we need to build a strong presence in the USA and reach filmmakers of all kinds.”

“With MAC Group’s proven track record, we look forward to seeing rapid expansion of Comodo products in the USA.”

Commenting on the announcement, Jan Lederman, President of MAC Group noted: “As MAC Group continues to expand the products it offers photographers, filmmakers educators, and students, it is continually being guided by its core principles of providing them with the world's finest image-making tools. The addition of Comodo to our family of brands takes us even closer to achieving that purpose. We look forward to building this brand in the USA and being a part of building its legacy here.”
